April 21, 2024

10:00 am

Welcome to Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church

As people made one in the waters of baptism, we believe our faith is strengthened by diversity in a community that welcomes all people. We celebrate God's unconditional love and respond joyfully to your presence here.

All are welcome. You are welcome.

Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church is a Reconciling in Christ congregation.

An online livestream will be available for today's service, along with a recording for future reference. Search "Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church" on YouTube.

This congregation worships on the ancestral and contemporary homeland of the Coast Salish peoples. We recognize the profoundly sacred relationship that our Native siblings have with the land and ask for forgiveness for the ways we have violated that which is revered by them and sustains us all.

Restrooms are located on the sanctuary level just past the library. In addition to men's and women's rooms, there is an all-gender restroom that houses a changing table.

A staffed nursery is available for children. You'll find it on this same floor, through the library, down the long hallway on the left (just past the restrooms).

Children are always welcome in worship! In the narthex you will find build-your-own worship bags. Your children can spread out and play in the narthex (speakers in the narthex will allow you to worship from there) or bring the activities to your pew.

The Pray Ground is the space in the Narthex (lobby) for small children and their caretakers to participate in worship while remaining their authentic selves without the burden of feeling self-conscious. There are activity items in baskets under the table. Ask an usher for help with any of these options. You are welcome to be here, make noise, wiggle, and participate in the way that works best for you. Ask an usher for help with any of these options. We want people of all ages to feel comfortable here!

Offerings Your generous gifts sustain this faith community! The outreach programs, music, choirs, utilities and facility upkeep plus our wonderful staff and more. Many folks contribute a set monthly amount through a program called Simply Giving that facilitates donations from your checking account on whatever timeframe you desire and amount you designate. We encourage everyone to consider using this, or a fee-less bank transfer, as it provides reliable monthly income for our budget. Some folks request offering envelopes which can be put in the offering plate or mailed in. Of course, cash in the plate is fine too. We encourage you to consider pledging so that we will know our funds for the year and can better plan. Gifts may also be given directly on our website under the GIVING tab. Questions to Parish Administrator Ann Erickson parishadmin@prlc.org

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

Please rise at the pouring of the water.

We gather in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

When we were baptized into Christ, we were joined to him in his dying and rising. Let us give thanks for the gift of water and the promises of baptism.

Silence for reflection.

Holy, Mighty Creator,

We thank you for the water we use in our homes for cleaning and bathing.

Cleanse our hearts and wash away our sin and shame.

We thank you for the water we drink, which quenches our thirst.

Fill us with your peace and satisfy the emptiness we sometimes feel.

We thank you for the Coast Salish people, the original caretakers and relatives of this land, and for their stewardship of the waters of our region, including the Pacific Ocean, the Puget Sound and Elliott Bay, Green Lake, Lake Washington and the winding waterways that connect them. We thank you for rain that nourishes all creatures.

Use our hands to care for creation. Keep our hands from doing harm.

We thank you for the water that we splash and play in.

Inspire joy and curiosity within us, so we can know your love more.

We thank you for waters that save and heal, bringing Noah and the animals to dry land and a new promise; parting for the Israelites to walk through to freedom; filling the Samaritan Woman with living water; pouring forth from Jesus' side on the cross.

May justice pour forth from us like raging water.

We thank you for washing away our sin in the waters of baptism.

Help us die to sin and rise to love others as we have been loved.

With each encounter with water that we have, today and every day, remind us of the good news of your salvation and grace, which will never wash away, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

O Lord Christ, good shepherd of the sheep, you seek the lost and guide us into your fold. Feed us, and we shall be satisfied; heal us, and we shall be whole. Make us one with you, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING: ACTS 4:5-12

The next day [the] rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, “By what power or by what name did you do this?” Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is ‘the stone that was rejected by you, the builders;

it has become the cornerstone.’

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.”

Holy Wisdom. Holy Word. Thanks be to God.

PSALM 23

The Lord is My Shepherd

Thomas Matthews

SECOND READING: 1 JOHN 3:16-24

We know love by this, that [Jesus Christ] laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God’s love abide in anyone who has the world’s goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Holy Wisdom. Holy Word. Thanks be to God..

GOSPEL: John 10:11-18

The Holy Gospel according to Saint John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said: “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

PREPARATION OF THE TABLE AND OFFERING OF GIFTS

Resucitó, Resucitó (Arose!)

Kirk Arguello

translation of Spanish stanza:

If we die with Him, we will live with Him. With Him we sing Alleluia!

OFFERING PRAYER

Let us pray. silence

Risen One, you call us to believe and bear fruit. May the gifts that we offer here be signs of your abiding love. Firm us to be your witnesses in the world, through Jesus Christ, our true vine. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, for the glorious resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ, the true Paschal Lamb who gave himself to take away our sin;

who in dying has destroyed death,
and in rising has brought us to eternal life.

And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection,
with earth and sea and all their creatures,
and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son,
who reached out to heal the sick and suffering,
who preached good news to the poor,
and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension,
we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food,
the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord;
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be all honor and glory, now and forever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.
Amen.

From Luci Baker Johnson, PRLC Historian & Archivist

In 2015, as a congregation, we celebrated 100 Years on the Ridge. That is, the 100th Anniversary of PRLC. Oh, the memories! For several years since then, we have been looking for a permanent space for the Archives. With support and encouragement from Nancy Winder, we now have a space! YEAH!! The archives room is now located on the 4th floor of our church building! I have a couple of folks to thank for making this a reality. First, to David Roby for finding new spaces for the items that had been stored in this room — and removing these items. Thanks also to the BAG (Building & Grounds) Committee, especially Joel Maier, for physically moving half of the archive boxes from a space next to the Food Bank (on the first floor) up to the new Archives room. This was accomplished two weeks ago. Fifty boxes were relocated! THANK YOU.

The next phase is to give the room a fresh coat of paint, then to relocate another fifty boxes into that room. Once this has been completed, we will need volunteers to help with organizing the room. This will be a long-term project, taking place over several months, if not years.

There are a few copies of a document that summarizes what was proposed in 2015. You can find a copy at the Grace Station.

Email me with your questions and/or interest in volunteering. ljbj-historian@earthlink.net

No Sleep ‘Til New Orleans! Fundraising efforts are now in full swing in preparation to send 4 of our kiddos and two of our adults to the ELCA National Youth Gathering. We truly appreciate those of you who have been asking about this trip, wondering how to support the kids attending, and wondering when fundraising would start. The time is now!!! We needed to solidify attendance and let Easter happen first. Now, stay tuned for specific opportunities to give and support these kids. For now, please start with prayer for safe travels, productive spiritual nourishment and growth, and sweet sweet bonding with friends. You can also read more announcements in the bulletin here for a couple other ideas.

Got extra Flight Miles you want to share? I’m wondering if anyone has any spare flight miles they’d like to share to help pay our way to New Orleans this July. Granted, we’d need quite a lot, but every little bit could help, I’m sure. Reach out to David, if you do. Thank you for considering!! cyf@prlc.org

Thrivent Action Grants to give? If you or anyone you know has access to a Thrivent Action Grant and would like to use it to support youth attending the National Youth Gathering in New Orleans, please contact Cara Tanis (mother of one of our awesome youth attending).
