

Entrance Hymn

Feast Day of St. John the Baptist

1. By all your saints still stri - ving, for all your saints at 2. We praise you for the Bap - tist, fore - run - ner of the 3. Give praise to God Al - might - y, and wor - ship God the rest, your ho - ly name, O Je - sus, for - e - ver - more be Word, our true El - i - jah, mak - ing a high - way for the Son, and sing to God the Spi - rit, e - ter - nal Three in blessed! For you a - rose vic - to - rious that — they might wear the Lord. The last and great - est pro - phet, he — saw the dawn - ing One, til all the ran - somed num - ber fall — down be - fore the crown and share the light of glo - ry re - flect - ed from your ray of light that grows in splen - dor un - til the per - fect throne, and hon - or, pow'r, and glo - ry as - cribe to God a - throne. By all your saints still stri - ving, for all your saints at day. We praise you for the Bap - tist, fore - run - ner of the lone. Give praise to God Al - might - y and wor - ship God the rest, your ho - ly name, O Je - sus, for ev - er - more be blessed.

 Word, our true El - i - jah, mak - ing a high - way for the Lord.
 Son, and sing to God the Spi - rit, e - ter - nal Three in One.

Text: Horatio Bolton Nelson, 1823-1913
 Music: Gustav Holst, 1874-1934