*Jesus feeds the 5,000 with five loaves and two fish.
Even with the smallest portion of food, Jesus feeds us abundantly.*

“Jesus demonstrated that the world is filled with abundance and freighted with generosity. If bread is broken and shared, there is enough for all. Jesus is engaged in the sacramental, subversive reordering of public reality.”

– Walter Breuggemann

“Eternal God ... Jesus, the Lamb of God, is the most exquisite food for us. He is the most exquisite food for us, both in his teaching which nourishes us in your will, and in the sacrament that we receive in Holy Communion, which feeds and strengthens us while we are pilgrim travelers in this life ...”

– Catherine of Siena

GATHERING

WORD OF WELCOME

PRE-SERVICE MUSIC

Sonata for Viola da Gamba, BWV 1027

II. Allegro ma non tanto

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Water is poured at the font. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God,
who forgives all our sin,
whose mercy endures forever.

Amen.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

[Silence for reflection]

Most merciful God,

we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

God, who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved. In the name of † Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. Almighty God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that Christ may live in your hearts through faith. Amen.

GREETING AND PRAYER OF THE DAY

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Let us pray. [silence]

Glorious God, your generosity waters the world with goodness, and you cover creation with abundance. Awaken in us a hunger for the food that satisfies both body and spirit, and with this food fill all the starving world; through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

WORD

LESSON — Genesis 32:22-31

[At night Jacob] got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

Holy wisdom, Holy word.

Thanks be to God.

*Jacob receives a blessing
from God*

PSALM 17:1-7, 15

Hear a just cause, O Lord; give heed to my cry;
listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Let my vindication come forth from your presence;
let your eyes be fixed on justice.

Examine my heart, visit me by night,
melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I have not regarded what others do;
at the word of your lips I have avoided the ways of the violent.

My footsteps hold fast to your well-worn path;
and my feet do not slip.

I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me;
incline your ear to me and hear my words.

Show me your marvelous lovingkindness,
O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise against them.

But at my vindication I shall see your face;
when I awake, I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

GOSPEL — Matthew 14:13-21

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Now when Jesus heard [about the beheading of John the Baptist], he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” And he said, “Bring them here to me.” Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Announcements

Youth Quench Goes Outside! Beginning Wednesday, August 5, we're coming out of quarantine to Quench on the PRLC front lawn! All youth are invited! We'll have a middle school meet-up for 6th-8th graders from 2-3pm and then high schoolers it's your turn to hang out from 3:00-4:00 p.m. Please wear a mask and bring your own chair or blanket to set up your socially distanced space. There will be no bathroom or other access to the building available. So excited to be with you without our screens in between! The plan is to try this each Wednesday during the month of August, weather permitting. If it rains, we'll gather on Zoom instead.

Edible hope of St. Luke's Episcopal Church is asking for your help volunteering to feed the homeless in Ballard. Since April 23 the National Guard has been helping us out by preparing, packing and serving food daily. They have made it possible for this vital ministry to continue while vulnerable volunteers have been able to stay healthy at home. Due to the fact that they are leaving at the end of July, we will soon be desperately understaffed if you don't help out! We are looking for eight volunteers (ages 12-60) per day to come between 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. You will either be preparing, packing, serving or cleaning up. Serving is happening outside in the parking lot. Masks, gloves, and aprons will be provided. Temperature checks will also be necessary for social distancing/safety measures. With a commitment to volunteer just one day a week, you could help out people in our community and have something to do during these uncertain times. Please contact Sara Bates at 206-784-3119 or meals@stlukeseattle.org for more information. We at Edible Hope thank you for volunteering!

– PRLC Member Einar Ogle

Virtual Vacation Bible School: August 10–14 We can stay home, stay safe, AND Jesus' power will STILL pull us through! ZOOM along the Rocky Railway with us August 10–14 daily at 10:00 a.m. With videos, songs, stories, skits, experiments, snacks, discussions and much more we'll engage in online faith focused fun and exploration. Stay on track supply packs, including a t-shirt, music album, and lots of fun surprises will be provided for each participant. Cost per person is $30. Scholarships are always available if needed. Opportunities for safe and distanced in-person gatherings may be added as government and health guidelines progress and permit. Online registration is now available at prlc.org.

PRLC Summer Strolls Last Sunday, 9 humans and 3 dogs made it through 3.5 miles of real summer heat through the Stay Healthy Streets in the Cedar Park/Lake City neighborhood of northeast Seattle. This Sunday, August 2, is sure to be cooler, as we will be walking along the Puget Sound breezes of Elliot Bay along Myrtle Edwards and Centennial Parks, from Interbay to the Seattle Waterfront and back. The walk will be about 3.5 miles and is completely flat and easy.

Over the course of four strolling seasons, this has proven to be our most popular walk, and we will be completing once again for the third year in a row. This year, however, the Expedia campus is finally “open” (although, most of the workers are working remotely), so we will be starting further north near the Smith Cove Waterway in Interbay, including along a brand new stretch of trail and past the intriguingly named “The Beach at Expedia Group.” At 6:00 p.m. we will be parking/gathering in the covered Public Parking area at the new Expedia Campus above ground parking tower on 16th Ave NW. Directions to the garage are tricky, so please contact Don Boelter, donboelter@gmail.com, 206-276-4687 for driving instructions and don’t rely on navigation apps (really, trust me!). As usual, all ages are welcome, including non-Phinney family and friends. Hope to see you there!

Vicar Care Committee. We'd like to give a shout of appreciation to Al Bruck, Riley Dudley, Alice and Willie Gregory, Eric Liljegren, Alice Rowe, Erica Shutes-David, and Michael Trice as they support our new vicar, Sara Funkhouser, as she follows her call in these weirdest of times. Sara will be moving to an apartment on Phinney Ridge on August 6. Thank you to all who have so generously donated furniture and housewares on her behalf. We're still looking for a few items, including a fan and any wall art or frames. We'd love to have Sara feel welcomed and seen by our congregation despite the obstacles of social distancing. If you're willing, please send a letter or card in which you introduce yourself to Sara:

Vicar Sara Funkhouser
c/o Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church
7500 Greenwood Ave N
Seattle, WA 98103

Feel free to include a gift card or suggestions for your favorite places to visit around Seattle, especially places that are open and accessible when social distancing. We are so excited to have her!

Coming Soon: DVD's. We will soon be able to offer mailed DVD's of our Sunday Worship to anyone with limited access to the internet. If you or someone you know would like to receive them, please email office@prlc.org or call (206) 783-2350. The office maintains a mailing list for weekly worship bulletins and Tower Echoes. Also available are printed Sunday Sermons and the devotionals Christ in Our Home and Portals of Prayer.

Our Weekly Circle of Prayer

“let us exalt God’s name together...” Psalm 34:3 + “pray without ceasing ...” 1 Thessalonians 5:17

We welcome your requests for prayers for persons in need and your prayers. Please email office@prlc.org or call 206-783-2350 with requests. Prayer requests will remain on the list for four Sundays; if you wish to keep a request on the prayer list for longer, please contact the office. New requests for the week are in bold type.
